
Taikisha Ltd. Selected as a Constituent of “FTSE Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index”

Taikisha Ltd. (Head Office: Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo, Japan; Representative Director, President: Koji Kato) was selected as a constituent of “FTSE Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index”

FTSE Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index, developed by the global index provider FTSE Russell, reflects the performance of Japanese companies that have relatively strong Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) practices in individual sectors, and is designed to be sector neutral. In addition, this index promotes the transition to a low-carbon economy, by selecting only companies that are evaluated their improvement efforts by the TPI Management Quality Score, especially for companies with high greenhouse gas emissions.

Taikisha will continue contributing to the realization of a sustainable society, considering the social trends and needs surrounding ESG, as an engineering company related to “Energy, Air, and Water” under the spirit of Mission Statement “Customers First” (Customers are defined as Overall Society in a broad sense.).
