
Taikisha signs United Nations Global Compact

Taikisha Ltd. (Head Office: Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo, Japan; Representative Director, President: Koji Kato) has signed United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) advocated by the United Nations and has been registered as a member company on November 24, 2020.

UNGC is a global initiative in which companies and organizations voluntarily take part in realizing a sustainable society by taking responsible and creative leadership to act as good members of society. UNGC signatories have to agree on ten principles related to the four categories of human rights, labour, the environment and anti-corruption and conduct their business operations.

■ The Ten Principles of United Nations Global Compact

Human Rights	Principle 1:	Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
	Principle 2:	make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.
Labour	Principle 3:	Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
	Principle 4:	the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;
	Principle 5:	the effective abolition of child labour; and
	Principle 6:	the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.
Environment	Principle 7:	Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
	Principle 8:	undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
	Principle 9:	encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.
Anti-Corruption	Principle 10:	Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Taikisha states “Respond to social needs such as SDGs- and ESG-related needs through business operations” in its mid-term business plan (from FY2019 to FY2021) formulated in FY2019. Taikisha will continue to contribute to realizing a sustainable society as the engineering company related to “energy, air and water.”
